KSA COUNCIL 2024-25 TAKES PROACTIVE STEPS TO STRENGTHEN ACCOUNTABILITY

Surrey, BC – As students of KPU, members of KSA's Council are members of the KPU community, and are representatives of the KPU student body. KSA's Council confirms that its members will abide by KPU's policies that apply to students in their capacity as members of KSA's Council.

After reflecting on complaints received regarding a Council retreat held in the latter half of last year in Kelowna, KSA's Council Members have agreed to repay to KSA the cleaning charge that was incurred by KSA.

KSA will ensure that all Council members are aware of their responsibilities as students of KPU. Any person intending to run in the KSA election is required to attend the All Candidates / Security Meeting which will involve a presentation on Council's responsibilities as students of KPU. If a candidate fails to attend the mandatory meeting without arranging an alternate meeting, they are deemed to have withdrawn their candidacy in accordance with KSA's Election Handbook.

KSA will also provide Council orientation training to incoming Council members that includes in depth training on the responsibilities that directors of societies hold and the responsibilities that Council members have as representatives of KPU's student body, including training on KPU's policies.
